

Advancing Interdisciplinary STEM Graduate Education in Energy and Sustainability Disciplines

Alliance for Graduate Education and the Professoriate (AGEP)
a TAMU system-wide alliance

Energy and Sustainability (E&S) AGEP Mini-Grant Application (Supported by National Science Foundation under award number 1308200)

Purpose:

E&S AGEP Mini-Grant: Foster TAMUS faculty research collaborations to support Alliance wide collaboration with master's and doctoral student researchers. The mini-grant awards are to support research conducted by an AGEP student in coordination with faculty members in his/her field. The Mini-Grants provide seed funding to support the development of new collaborative research and/or teaching efforts submitted by an AGEP student as the main author of the proposal.

Eligibility:

AGEP students co-mentored by faculty from at least two Alliance institutions. These projects will be selected based on an assessment of the likelihood the projects will be self-sustaining in terms of continued funding and also have the potential to expand collaborations across the Alliance.

AGEP students must be U. S. Citizens and must have underrepresented minority status.
