

AGEP National Fellowship Application Lab Summer 2016 Seminar Schedule

- June 2, 2016 A Good National Fellowship Personal Statement (all students)
Facilitator: Dr. Katie Stober
Associate Director for Graduate Student Services, Career Center, TAMU
In this seminar Dr. Stober will discuss the important elements of a good personal statement for national fellowships, post doc fellowships, and dissertation fellowships.
Location & Time: Wisenbaker 236C, 5:30-6:30 PM
- June 16, 2016 Completing A National Fellowship Application Package, Part 1 (1st-2ndyr students)
Facilitator: Dr. Laurie Garton –NSF Graduate Research Fellowship Program
Sr. Research Development Specialist, TEES
Dr. Garton will focus on completing a good national fellowship application, specifically the National Science Foundation (NSF) Graduate Research Fellowship Program (GRFP).
Location & Time: Wisenbaker 236C, 5:30-6:30 PM
- July 7, 2016 Proposal Development for National Fellowship (all students)
This workshop would be ideal for those students for which the NSF GRFP is not a good fit.
Facilitator: Dr. Manuel Piña –Associate Professor, Department of Agricultural Leadership, Education, and Communications
Location & Time: Wisenbaker 236C, 5:30-6:30 PM
- July 21, 2016 Completing A National Fellowship Application Package, Part 2 (all students)
This workshop will go more in depth and focus on personal statements and etc.
Facilitator: Dr. Deborah Bell-Pedersen
Professor and Associate Department Head for Operations, Department of Biology
Dr. Bell-Pedersen will focus on giving students tips on elements that strengthen or weaken personal and/or research statements from a reviewer's perspective.
Location & Time: Wisenbaker 236C, 5:30-6:30 PM

RSVP via Event Registration System

Advancing Interdisciplinary STEM Graduate Education in Energy and Sustainability Disciplines
Alliance for Graduate Education and the Professoriate